

- Author of 1st book ever published on college safety issues – Protect Yourself at College: Smart Choices – Safe Results
- Advocate for student safety and public speaker for college safety awareness programs
- Testified before the PA House and Senate Committee on the problem of underage drinking
- Founder of The College Safety Zone and source for local, regional and national media affiliates regarding college safety incidents
- Author of the book, Priests Are People Too!

College Safety Zone is one of only a handful of businesses in the country that offers crime prevention education programs for high school and college students. College Safety Zone programs instruct students to become proactive and train them to expect the unexpected regarding their safety both on and off campus. Using a unique combination of actual stories, interactive media, and role playing, speaker and author Tom Kane captures student's attention from beginning to end, and teaches them about the potential pitfalls and dangerous areas within the campus environment.

Due to Tom's books, his media appearances read like a Who's Who of television and radio personalities. Tom has appeared and been featured on the following programs:
