

ReadyChesco

Chester County's official source for emergency information, government notifications, and alerts is ReadyChesco. Chester County relies on this service to push information out to the community during an emergency. This service allows you to receive notifications from your responder organization, Chester County department, or municipal office via phone calls, text messaging, e-mail and more based on locations you care about. You can choose to receive notifications about events that may affect your home, workplace, family's schools and more. Go to <http://www.readychesco.org/> and click on 'enroll here today'. Please be sure to keep your contact information up to date. The information is not shared with other organizations and is used for notification purposes only.
