

Teacher Assistance

Teachers are available before and after school for help with classroom assignments and test preparation. Students or guardians can arrange this by either speaking with or emailing the teacher directly. Teacher emails can be found on HHS website.

In addition, some teachers are available outside of school for tutoring services. Please see the Department Head of the subject area you are interested in for a current listing teachers offering outside services.